

WATER AWARENESS PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the health of California's growing population and the welfare of our communities depends on a reliable, high quality water supply; and

WHEREAS, the fact that California will experience periodic droughts and water conservation is critical not only during drought periods, but at all times; and

WHEREAS, local governments, water agencies, agriculture, industry, environmentalists, and concerned citizens are working together to conserve and protect our valuable water resources; and

WHEREAS, by encouraging statewide understanding and appreciation of the value of water conservation, we foster wise decisions on water issues and water use; and

WHEREAS, during the month of May 2011, water agencies, cities, counties, and organizations throughout California will organize activities to educate the public about water management efforts of business, agriculture, industry, and others;

NOW THEREFORE, Linda Herndon, President of the Hidden Valley Lake Community Services District's Board of Directors does proclaim May 2011 as California Water Awareness Month and urge all citizens to join in supporting local water agencies and organizations in their effort to help Californians "Use Water Wisely-It's a Way of Life."
